Numb. 7355.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 30. to Tuesday December 3. 1734.

Warsaw, November 18, N. S.

THE Day before Yesterday a Messenger arrived with the News of the Elector of Saxony (stiled here King Augustus) and his Consort's being got safe and well as far as Widawa on Sunday the 14th Instant, which is 30 Polish Miles from this Place; and Yesterday a Courier brought an Account of their being expected at Petrikow the 16th, 22 Miles off; so that it is thought they will be here by the 21st Instant. Few Persons of Distinction of their Court are of this Journey, except M. Sulkowski and Bruhl: The Bishop of Cracow, the Prince Sangusko, and the Referendary Dembowski, who were at Dresden, come with them, as also the Emperor's Ambassadour and Grand Steward to the Electress Count Wratislaus, the Russian Minister M. Keyserling, and the Danish Envoy. A Dietine was held here on Monday last, when were appointed two Persons to attend the said Court on the Part of the Confederation for King Augustus, to which Confederation this District of Warsaw acceeds. General Lacy sends Advice, that a Detachment of his Troops have killed, dispersed or taken Prisoners several Standards of Strelitz or Huntsmen, that frequented the Woods upon the Frontiers of Prussia; and the new Regimentary Rzewuski writes, that in all Twelve Standards have submitted themselves. It is said that at the General Rendezvous of the Polish Army at Nisko for King Stanislaus, they have elected M. Tarlo Storosta Jacelski, for their Marshal.

Whitehall, November 28, 1734.

Whereas on Monday the 21st of October last, between the Hours of Seven and Twelve at Night, the Chambers of John Lawson, Esq; next Door to the Old Crown Office in the Temple, were broke open and robbed of One Hundred Guineas in Money, and Goods to a considerable Value: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons, who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, to any Person who shall discover where any of the said Money or Goods then taken out of the said Chamber now are, so as they may be had again, viz. One Hundred Guineas, two large Silver Candlesticks engrav'd with these Arms on them, viz. a St. Andrew's Cross, with Wheatsheafs and Stars in the Field, and a Boar's Head for the Crest; two Silver Tea Canisters mark'd with the same Arms; two large Silver Spoons, the one mark'd with J. L. the other forgot; a Set of Silver Tea-Spoons, with Tongs and Strainer; a Silver Hilted Sword; a chas'd Gold Watch, the Maker's Name Hurt, No. 362, with a Pinchbeck Chain and two Gold Seals, the larger one engrav'd in a Cornelian with the same Arms, and the small one with the Crest as above; a Metal Watch with the Dial-plate enamel'd, without a Minute Hand; a Pair of Silver capp'd Horse Pistols with a Lyon's Face; a Pair of Silver Snuffers, either with a Boar's Head engrav'd, or else no Mark; a China Tea-pot with Silver Spout; some India Tea-cups with Men and Women Figures; a Velvet Wastcoat and Breeches with Gold Buttons; a French White Silk Wastcoat richly embroidered with Gold and Silk; a Dozen and a Half of Shirts, most of them mark'd with an L. a Pair of Sheets; Clarendon's History of the Rebellion; the latest Edition of the Statutes at large; D'Anvers's Abridgment; Equity Cases abridg'd; Jacob's Law Dictionary; Hawkins's Pleas of the Crown; Weston's Short-Hand, with several other things